

To become a reviewer for Journal of Controlled Release (JCR), please go to the JCR website and register yourself as a reviewer.

1. Go to the following website and click “Reviewers” (red arrow).

<https://www.journals.elsevier.com/journal-of-controlled-release>

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Journal of Controlled Release. At the top right, there is a search bar and a menu icon. A dark navigation menu is open on the right side, listing various options: About, Books and Journals, Authors, Editors, Librarians, Reviewers (highlighted with a red arrow), Research Platforms, Research Intelligence, R&D Solutions, Clinical Solutions, Education Solutions, All Solutions, Shop Books and Journals, and Author Webshop. The main content area features the journal's logo, ISSN (0168-3659), and a list of articles with titles like 'Nanoparticle-mediated brain drug delivery: Overcoming blood-brain barrier to treat neurodegenerative diseases'.

2. It will lead to <https://www.elsevier.com/reviewers>.

Click “Sign up for Reviewers’ Update” (red arrow), and fill up the register form.

The screenshot shows the 'Elsevier for Reviewers' page. The header includes the Elsevier logo and navigation icons. The main content area has a dark background with white text: 'Elsevier for Reviewers' and 'Welcome to the Reviewer Hub – your source of information, guidance and support for reviewing with Elsevier'. A 'Become a reviewer' button is visible. Below this, there are four navigation tabs: 'What is peer review?', 'Become a reviewer', 'Conducting a review', and 'Tools and resources for reviewers'. At the bottom, there is a 'Quick links' section with three items: 'Locate a journal', 'Retrieve your credentials', and 'Sign up for Reviewers' Update' (highlighted with a red arrow).
